

Why would you want to overturn this process and start over again. Speaking for myself and on behalf of New Jersey residents, surely you do not realize the peace and tranquility that we now appreciate since the Do Not Call rule has be put in place.

Don't you believe in quality of life?